FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

8th Annual Union County Benefit Auction to support

The Clinic for Special Children

(Strasburg, PA) The Clinic for Special Children (CSC), a non-profit medical and scientific organization focused on providing care to children and adults with genetic or other complex disorders, is marking its 8th annual Union County Benefit Auction on Saturday, June 1, 2019 at the Buffalo Valley Produce Auction. The family-friendly event runs from 8:30 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. and is free and open to the public. There will also be a flower sale and rib dinner on Friday, May 31, 2019 from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m. at the Buffalo Valley Produce Auction.

Handmade quilts, handcrafted furniture, new bedroom suites, toys and collectibles, storage sheds, lawn furniture, crafts, farm supplies, gift certificates and more will be auctioned throughout the day!

There will also be a silent auction with amazing items up for bid. A variety of food will be offered for purchase including barbeque chicken, steamed shrimp, freshly made pies, donuts, whoopie pies, ice cream, and much more!

The funds raised from the annual benefit auctions and philanthropy make up over 40% of the Clinic's annual operating budget, which allows the Clinic to continue to provide affordable, specialized care to children and adults living with rare genetic disease. The Union County auction is one of six auctions across the country each year that support the Clinic. Since 1990, these auctions have raised close to $12 million in support of the Clinic's mission.
